In order to graduate, each doctoral student must:

1. Satisfactorily complete the candidacy examination and have the approval of all committee members on the Report on Candidacy.

2. Register and enroll for at least three graduate credit hours during the semester in which the final oral examination is taken and the semester in which graduation is expected.

3. Submit an Application to Graduate on GRADFORMS.OSU.EDU no later than the third Friday of the semester or summer term in which graduation is expected.

4. Complete a minimum of 80 graduate credit hours. At least 50 of these must be completed beyond the master’s degree. For a master’s degree earned at another institution to count toward the 80 hours, it must be officially transferred.

5. Complete the following requirements after the master’s degree has been earned or after the first 30 hours of graduate credit have been completed. (The latter applies to programs where a master’s degree will not be transferred.)
   - A minimum of 24 graduate credit hours at The Ohio State University.
   - A minimum of two consecutive pre-candidacy semesters or one semesters and a summer term with full-time enrollment.
   - A minimum of six graduate hours over a period of at least two semesters after admission to candidacy.
   - Earn a graduate cumulative point-hour ratio of at least 3.0.

6. The Application for Final Examination on GRADFORMS.OSU.EDU must be submitted and approved by the defense committee at least two weeks before the date of the final oral examination. The complete, typed dissertation draft also needs to be submitted to the Graduate School at least two weeks before the defense date to be reviewed for format compliance in the presence of the student (or the student’s agent).

7. Satisfactorily complete the final oral examination and verify that the Report on Final Examination has been approved by all committee members by the published deadline for the semester or summer term of graduation.

8. Convert final dissertation or DMA document to embedded font PDF and submit to the Graduate School through OhioLINK (https://etdadmin.ohiolink.edu). Receive email acceptance of document from the Graduate School.
GRADUATION CHECKLIST—DOCTORAL

Once the electronic submission has been accepted, make sure the following items have been completed:

____ Report on Final Document completed by all committee members

____ Microfilming and processing of the dissertation is required. The fee is $20, which will be posted to the student’s Ohio State account about the fourth week of the semester. It is only charged the first time that a student applies to graduate.

____ Complete the Survey of Earned Doctorates form http://survey.norc.uchicago.edu/doctorate and the Doctoral Exit Survey listed on the student’s Carmen account.

____ Final grades for all previous and current courses need to be posted to a student's university record by the grade submission deadline for graduation.

If you are unable to complete the requirements within the deadlines, notify the Graduate School as soon as possible.
