1. Obtain an Ohio State Email Account
   • You must be admitted to Ohio State before you can activate your email account.
   • If you are a returning student, you can reactivate your email account 24 to 48 hours after reactivating your enrollment eligibility.
   • Your osu.edu email address typically serves as your username and is used to access student information online.
   • All university correspondence is sent to your osu.edu email address. You are responsible for the content of all official emails sent to your osu.edu account. If you forward osu.edu email to another email account, you are still responsible for those messages.

   NOTE: Ohio State will never ask for your username or password. Never reply to any email asking for your Ohio State username or password or other personal details. If you receive such a request, please report it to report-phish@osu.edu.

2. Complete the Financial Responsibility Statement
   • You must complete the financial responsibility statement before you can register.
   • Your record is updated immediately after you complete the financial responsibility statement. Visit http://ssc.osu.edu/pdf/student_view.pdf for more information.

3. Schedule Classes
   • See the registration instructions on the reverse side of this form.
   • You are responsible for knowing and observing registration and payment deadlines. Visit registrar.osu.edu for deadlines.
   • If you are a provisionally admitted student, you must submit the final and official transcript(s) from the institution(s) where you completed your degree or required course work. Contact Graduate Admissions for more information.

4. Obtain a Student ID—BuckID
   • You must be enrolled for the current term to receive a BuckID
   • Your BuckID serves as your bus pass for COTA buses, and is used to access the Recreation & Physical Activity Center (RPAC)

5. Pay Fees
   • All fees are due one week prior to the first day of classes. Accounts not paid by that date will receive a late payment penalty.
   • The recreation (RPAC) fee is assessed each term for all students enrolled for 4 or more hours.
   • All students are assessed the student activity, student union facility, and COTA bus fees each semester.
   • Students admitted to a degree program registered at least half-time are automatically enrolled in student health insurance. If you choose to waive your student health insurance, you must provide proof of alternate coverage. Visit shi.osu.edu for more information.
   • Students admitted to a degree program on the Columbus campus are assessed a student legal services fee. Students may waive this fee but cannot re-enroll later in the participation year if a legal issue arises. Visit studentlegal.osu.edu for more information.
   • Fee authorizations cover instructional and general fees, not the student fees above.
   • You will not receive paper statements of account. You must check your statement of account online and observe all payment and registration deadlines.

For a detailed explanation of fees and tuition, visit registrar.osu.edu.
Complete the Financial Responsibility Statement
2. Under the Holds section, click DETAILS. (A)
3. Click the hold item titled REGISTRATION LOCK.
4. Click COMPLETE FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY STATEMENT. (B)
