Request for a Restriction of Sale (Delay) of PhD/DMA dissertations through ProQuest/UMI

A delay with ProQuest only applies to PhD/DMA documents at OSU. Master’s theses are not sent for archiving. Students who request an embargo of dissertation on OhioLink need to also submit a “Restriction of Sale” directly to ProQuest to limit public access.

OSU dissertations are sent to ProQuest/UMI for archiving and increasing discovery of dissertations. As a part of this process, ProQuest includes the documents on an on-line catalog making dissertations available for purchase. If you would not like the document accessible to the public, you need to request a “Restriction of Sale” directly with ProQuest/UMI. To request this restriction, submit a ProQuest Publishing Agreement.

When you submit the final dissertation through OhioLink for format review, it is only accessible to the Graduate School. It is kept in a pending folder until manually released at a later time. The electronic document will not be released from the Graduate School pending folder until after commencement unless you are an end of semester (EOS) student. Those dissertations are usually released before the beginning of the next term. Either way, you will receive an email from OhioLink with a link to the released dissertation.

If you requested a delay through OhioLink, then only the abstract is viewable when you open the link. (The abstract is entered during submission by you in a specific OhioLink screen, not from the document. The full document is not accessible until the delay expires.) If you requested a delay with OhioLink by submitting the Petition to Delay, and the entire document is available for download when you open the link, contact Graduation Services at your earliest convenience: GSETD@osu.edu

Once OhioLink has the document, the staff there will send it to ProQuest/UMI within 5-7 days. ProQuest does not immediately process the dissertations received. The ProQuest Publishing Agreement will be on hand for when it is processed.

The Agreement should be submitted directly to Proquest by the posted OSU document deadline. If you don’t use this deadline, it may be accessible before you submit the form. The email address ProQuest/UMI suggests that students use to submit the Publishing Agreement is: disspub@proquest.com ProQuest/UMI will keep the forms in a holding area (what ProQuest calls “await word” file).
Section I. License for Inclusion of the Work in ProQuest Publishing Program

Grant of Rights. Author hereby grants to ProQuest the non-exclusive, worldwide right to reproduce, distribute, display and transmit the Work (in whole or in part) in such tangible and electronic formats as may be in existence now or developed in the future. Author further grants to ProQuest the right to include the abstract, bibliography and other metadata in the ProQuest Dissertations & Theses database (PQDT) and in ProQuest Dissertation Abstracts International and any successor or related index and/or finding products or services.

ProQuest Publishing Program - Election and Elements. The rights granted above shall be exercised according to the publishing option selected by Author in Section III, Author Options, and subject to the following additional Publishing Program requirements:

- Redistribution of the Work. Except as restricted by Author in the publishing option selected, the rights granted by Author automatically include (1) the right to allow sale and distribution of the Work, in whole or in part, by agents and distributors, including but not limited to commercial retail outlets and (2) the right to make the Abstract, bibliographic data and any meta data associated with the Work available to search engines and harvesters.

- Restrictions. ProQuest will use commercially reasonable efforts to restrict the distribution of the Work as provided under the publishing option selected by Author or as later elected by Author through direct contact with ProQuest. Such election is subject to Author’s Degree Granting Institution Directives (see below). With respect to restrictions requested after submission of the Work, Author acknowledges that ProQuest cannot recall or amend previously distributed versions of the Work.

- Removal of Work from the Program. ProQuest may elect not to distribute the Work if it believes that all necessary rights of third parties have not been secured. Refer to the website http://www.proquest.com/en-US/products/dissertations/for information about copyright and your dissertation or thesis. If Author’s degree is rescinded, and the degree-granting institution so directs, ProQuest will expunge the Work from its publishing program in accordance with its then current publishing policies.

- Degree Granting Institution Directives. Author is solely responsible for any conflict between policies and directions of Author’s degree-granting institution, Author’s choice of publishing model, and/or any restriction Author places on the use of the Work. For the avoidance of doubt, ProQuest is not responsible for access to the Work that is provided by Author’s degree-granting institution through its library or institutional repository. Author must work directly with Author’s degree granting institution to ensure application of any restrictions to access relating to the Work by Author’s degree granting institution.

Copyright and Deposit with the Library of Congress. At Author's option and upon payment of the applicable fee, ProQuest will submit an application for registration of Author's copyright in the Work in Author's name. In addition, regardless of whether copyright registration of the Work is sought, ProQuest may make a copy of the Work available to the Library of Congress in digital, microform or other format as required by the Library of Congress.

Publishing Fees and Royalties. Author shall remit the publishing fees and the optional copyright registration fees as appropriate for the publishing option chosen by Author, and as specified by Author’s degree-granting institution.
Rights Verification. Author represents and warrants that Author is the copyright holder of the Work and has obtained all necessary rights to permit ProQuest to reproduce and distribute third party materials contained in any part of the Work, including all necessary licenses for any non-public, third party software necessary to access, display, and run or print the Work. Author is solely responsible and will indemnify ProQuest for any third party claims related to the Work as submitted for publication.

Section II-A. Rights pursuant to Traditional Publishing
The Ohio State University suggests Traditional Publishing. Author’s election of Traditional as the Type of Publishing confirms Author’s choice to have ProQuest publish the Work according to the Traditional Publishing option described below.

Traditional Publishing. ProQuest may exercise the rights granted under Section I above including through the sale of individual copies of the Work in tangible or electronic media and/or as part of electronic database and reference products or services.

Publishing Fees and Royalties. Author’s payment of the dissertation publishing fee is a one-time through The Ohio State University Graduate School. ProQuest will pay royalties of 10% of its net revenue from sales of the Work, conditioned on Author maintaining a current address on record with ProQuest. Royalties will be paid when accrued earned royalties reach $25.00. If, after 25 years, earned royalties do not accrue to at least $25.00, ProQuest’s royalty payment obligation will cease.

Section II-B. Rights pursuant to Open Access
Author’s election of Open Access as the Type of Publishing confirms Author’s choice to have ProQuest publish the Work according to the Open Access Publishing option described here.

Open Access Publishing Plus. In addition to the rights granted under Section I of this ProQuest Publishing Agreement, ProQuest may reproduce, distribute, display and transmit the Work in electronic format in the ProQuest Dissertations & Theses database, where it may be made available for free download. A subset of the ProQuest Dissertations & Theses database, currently known as PQDT Open, may be accessed by the academic community as well as through major search engines and open access harvesters. ProQuest may also provide an electronic copy of the Work to Author’s degree-granting institution where it may also be posted for free open access. Learn more: http://www.proquest.com/en-US/products/dissertations/epoa.shtml

Copy Sales. ProQuest and its agents and distributors may offer copies of the Work for sale in tangible media, including but not limited to microform, print and CD-ROM, as well as in electronic format either individually or as part of its electronic database and reference products and services. No royalties shall be due to Author.

Publishing Fees. Author’s payment of the additional Open Access fee is a one-time, up-front fee in addition to the ProQuest dissertation or thesis publishing fee. Author’s institution may assess additional fees to be collected along with the Open Access and publishing fees.
Section III. Publishing Options & Signature

Select the publishing options below that best fit your interests and scholarly publishing obligations.

Traditional Publishing

☐ I want to make my work widely available and I want to be eligible to receive royalties on the sale of my work.
  - I understand that I must maintain a current mailing address with ProQuest in order to be eligible to receive royalties.
  - I understand that my graduate institution will pay the total fee in association with my submission to ProQuest.

Open Access Publishing Plus

☐ I want the broadest possible dissemination of my work, and I want to provide free global access to the electronic copy of my work via the internet.
  - I understand that I will not be eligible to receive royalties.
  - I understand that the ProQuest fee for Open Access Publishing Plus for Dissertations is $95.

SELECT PUBLISHING OPTIONS
