Temporary Assignment: Faculty Fellow

The Interim Dean of the Graduate School seeks a member of the faculty to work on a temporary, part-time assignment overseeing the Graduate School’s work on graduate program curriculum and new program development.

Summary of duties

The individual will be responsible for overseeing the ongoing review of curricular changes to graduate programs as well as the development of new graduate programs. S/he will work directly with the Interim Dean of the Graduate School, Graduate Council, and the Graduate Council/Council on Academic Affairs curriculum subcommittee. S/he will serve as a liaison between faculty review of curriculum and the graduate programs. Support staff is available.

Required qualifications

The individual should have a recognized expertise and in-depth knowledge of curriculum and curricular review processes. S/he should have knowledge of the Graduate School and graduate education, and have good communication, organizational, and interpersonal skills.

Self-nominations are encouraged. Faculty are also encouraged to nominate well-qualified colleagues.

Terms of appointment

The length of the appointment and percentage of effort will be negotiated given the candidate’s other commitments. Support of the candidate’s Department Chair and College Dean is required.

Contact

Interested faculty are encouraged to submit a letter of intent. Questions can also be directed to herness.1@osu.edu or 247-7413.

Scott Herness
Interim Vice Provost for Graduate Studies and Interim Dean of the Graduate School