Creativity, solving problems, and Making new knowledge—these are the hallmarks of graduate education.
Message from the Dean

Whether you are a new graduate student or have been here for several semesters, there is always something new at Ohio State for you to discover.

Pursuing a graduate degree is exciting, and it takes a lot of focus to carry out the study and research involved in pursuing a master’s or doctoral degree.

This guide will help you keep on top of the business side of your graduate career (registration, funded appointments, and degree milestones) and point you to resources that will support your student experience and help you prepare for your career.

While you are here, I encourage you to explore all that Ohio State and Columbus have to offer. Get out of the lab or library, and take advantage of this time to network with your graduate student colleagues from other disciplines.

At every step of the way, the Graduate School is here to help. Feel free to call us if you have a question, and we’ll help steer you toward a productive path.

Scott Herness
Interim Vice Provost for Graduate Studies
Interim Dean of the Graduate School
About the Graduate School

Committed to quality & collaboration
The Graduate School provides strategic leadership for graduate education at The Ohio State University.

It fosters quality by ensuring high standards for graduate programs and by providing essential services that support the work of graduate students, faculty, and staff.

Graduate education and a graduate school are at the core of major research universities like Ohio State.

Graduate education is carried out by graduate faculty working with graduate students at the program level. This requires a strong, mutually reinforcing partnership between the graduate programs and the Graduate School.

Diversity is critical to excellence
The Graduate School is committed to effective recruitment, retention, and support for all graduate students. Inherent in that commitment is the belief that diversity is critical to excellence in graduate education and research.

The Graduate School promotes diversity in the community of graduate faculty and students and is an essential partner with the colleges and graduate programs in leveraging financial resources to recruit and support highly talented graduate students.

Paycheck Calendar

Graduate associates and fellows appointed for autumn semester will receive their first paycheck at the end of August. GAs on a nine-month appointment will receive one-half of a month’s paycheck in August and one-half in May.
First Four-Week Summer Session
A typical graduate associate appointment is for autumn and spring semesters. However, work patterns are determined locally, and they may vary due to the first four-week summer session.

If the first four-week summer session is part of a GTA’s established teaching load, for example, no additional pay is required. Alternatively, GTAs who have fulfilled their teaching obligations during autumn and spring semesters may be hired on supplemental appointments to teach during that session.

Fellows are typically appointed for three consecutive terms. The summer term, including the first four-week session, is part of the three-term appointment for fellows who start in autumn. If a fellowship appointment starts in the summer term, that appointment runs from mid-May to mid-May of the following year.

Payroll Deduction
Payroll deductions for student health benefits and other student service fees will occur in four installments for both autumn semester and spring semester.

Deductions will be reflected in September through December paychecks for autumn semester and January through April paychecks for spring semester. For summer term, deductions will be reflected in June and July paychecks.

Summer Fee Authorization
A GA appointed at 50 percent time for both autumn and spring semesters will receive a summer fee authorization. A graduate associate appointed at 25 percent time for both autumn and spring semesters is entitled to a summer fee authorization at half the full fee authorization rate.

A graduate student who elects not to enroll during the summer term immediately following his or her autumn and spring semesters GA appointment may not defer the use of the summer fee authorization.
Financial support for Ohio State graduate students is awarded in the form of associateships, fellowships, or traineeships. About 55 percent of graduate students (primarily doctoral students) receive some form of funding. Graduate students are not limited to funding from their program. There is no central clearinghouse of available GA positions, but you are welcome to ask individual programs and offices.

Graduate School Fellowships
Graduate School Fellowships are awarded competitively to incoming students after nomination by their graduate program. Graduate students cannot apply directly for these fellowships.

Presidential Fellowship
The most prestigious award given by the Graduate School. Graduate students entering the final phase of their dissertation research or terminal degree project. By program nomination only.

Alumni Grants for Graduate Research and Scholarship
Small grants to support graduate students conducting dissertation research or terminal master’s theses research.

J. Parker and Kathryn Webb Dinius Fellowship
Established by generous friends of the Graduate School. Supports students who plan to pursue or are pursuing a graduate or professional degree at Ohio State. Preference given to students who earned an undergraduate varsity letter at Ohio State.

SROP Graduate School Fellowship
A collaborative funding effort by the admitting program and the Graduate School. The multi-year award is only open to students who successfully completed the Ohio State Summer Research Opportunities Program (SROP).
Pelotonia Graduate Fellowship
Support for students in any field or discipline conducting cancer research. Funds are raised by Ohio State’s annual bike tour, Pelotonia. Awardees receive a stipend and the Graduate School provides fee authorizations.

Fulbright U.S. Student Program
The largest U.S. exchange program for students and young professionals to undertake international graduate study, advanced research, university teaching, and primary and secondary school teaching worldwide. Application process coordinated by the Graduate School.

Fulbright-Hays Doctoral Dissertation Research Abroad Program
Grants supporting travel for research, study opportunities or dissertation research that must be conducted in another country. Administered by the Office of International Affairs.

CIC/Smithsonian Institution Fellowship
A joint fellowship co-funded by the Graduate School and Smithsonian Institution that supports doctoral candidates conducting research with staff at any of the Smithsonian Institution facilities. Students apply directly via the Smithsonian’s application system.

National Science Foundation: Graduate Research Fellowship Program
The GRFP supports outstanding graduate students who are pursuing master’s and doctoral degrees in fields within NSF’s mission. Students apply online via the NSF.

Degree Options

FOR MORE INFORMATION, GO.OSU.EDU/DEGREE-OPTIONS

You can enhance your degree with low-credit hour minors and interdisciplinary specializations and options for dual and combined degrees. Talk with your advisor about the options that might be right for you, your research and career interests, and your degree completion timeline.

Graduate Minors, Interdisciplinary Specializations, and Graduate Certificates

These degree options are open to any graduate student interested in developing a secondary expertise. Some of these options are available for as few as 10 hours of graduate-level course work in at least three courses outside the student’s home program.

Combined Degrees

The purpose of combined programs is to give outstanding students an opportunity to pursue simultaneously two degrees in different colleges or schools by reducing the amount of time required to complete both sets of degree requirements.

Dual Degrees

A dual degree program is defined as a graduate student’s pursuit of any two graduate degrees concurrently, with the exception of two PhD programs. A dual degree program can be the concurrent pursuit of a master’s degree and any other graduate degree (master’s, PhD, or a professional doctorate) or a PhD and a professional doctorate.

Specializations

A graduate specialization represents a significant, widely recognized division of an overall field of study that is broader than an individual faculty member’s area of interest or an individual student’s thesis or dissertation topic.
These resources will help you take a more active and informed role in managing your student financial decisions.

Scarlet and Gray Financial, Office of Student Life
A free financial education program operated out of the Student Wellness Center in RPAC. In-person and online resources. Trained volunteer peer coaches offer 1:1 financial wellness appointments in the Student Life Student Wellness Center.
